

Weeding Non-Fiction

Notice how the shelves on the bottom right photo are filled almost solid from top to bottom. The other shelves had originally looked like that before weeding. After weeding, only the four middle shelves in each section were used. This gives a more open, inviting look and allows for front displays of books (which encourages students to browse through them).

