

Survey conducted of GiveKidsGoodSchools.org activists between August and October 2004. We received 11,984 responses, 59% self-identifying as educators.

Have you heard of the NCLB Act?

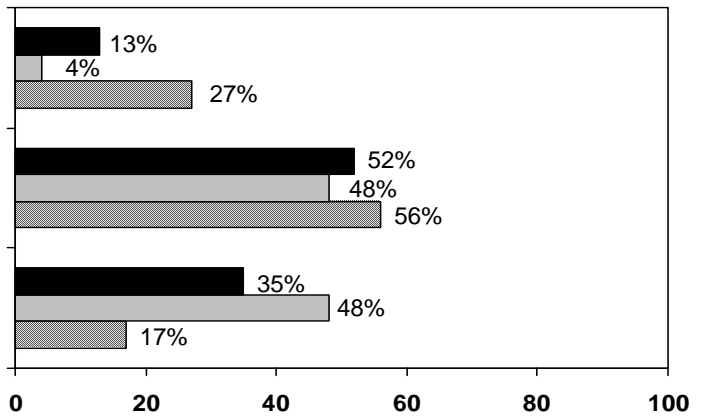

What do you know about NCLB?

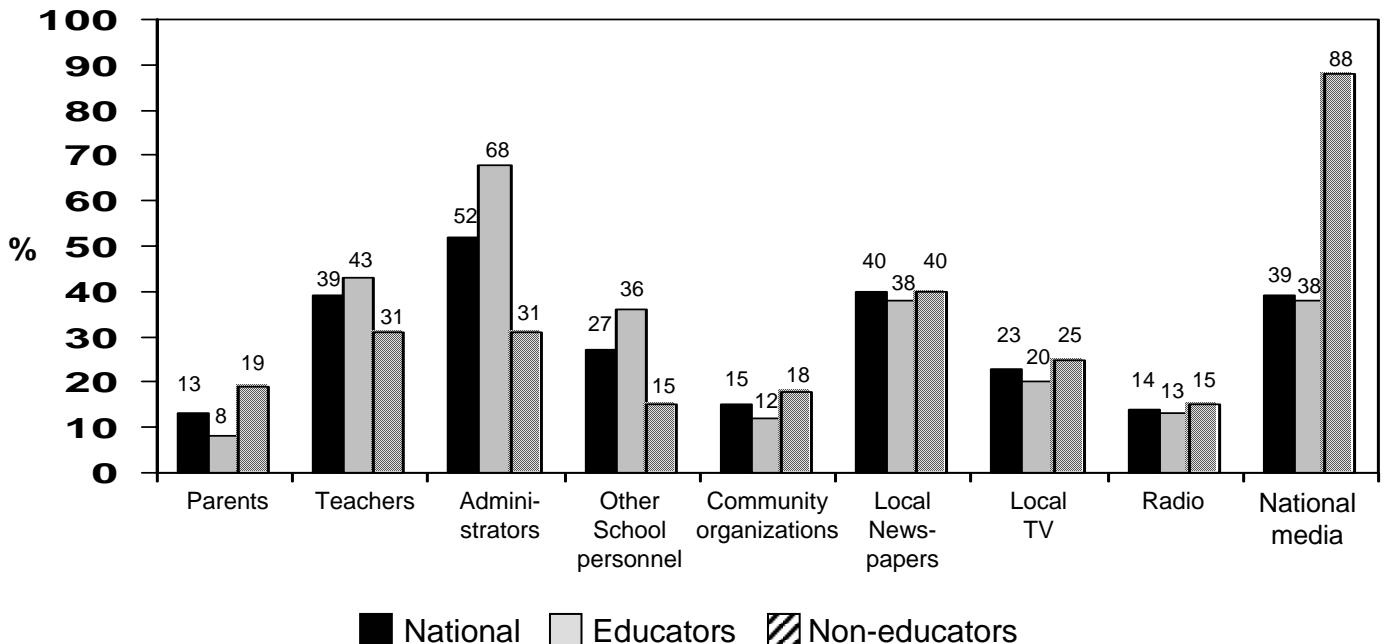

Have heard of the law, but know little about its provisions

Know about some provisions of the law

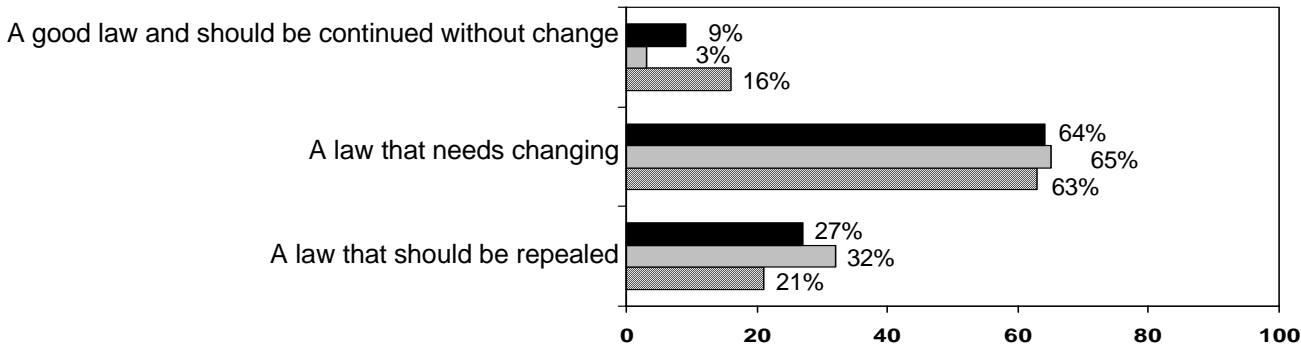

Have an in-depth knowledge of the law

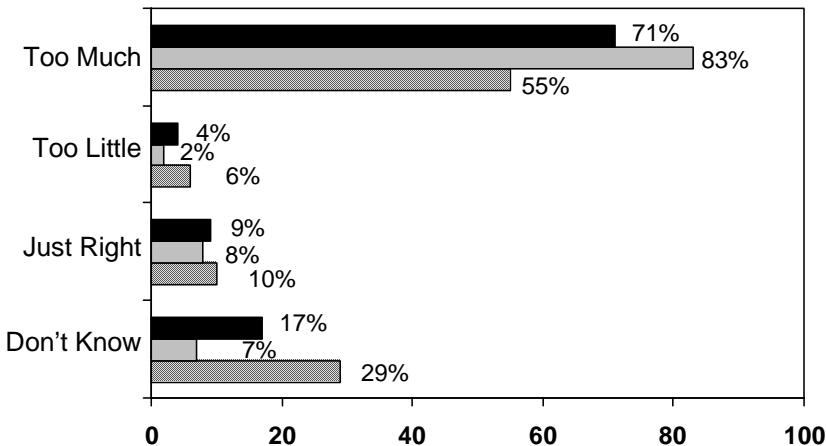

Where have you received most of your information about NCLB? (check all that apply)

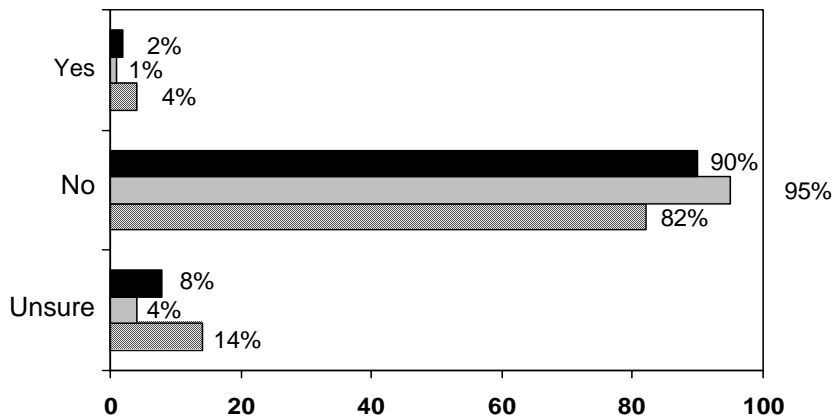

Do you believe NCLB is?:

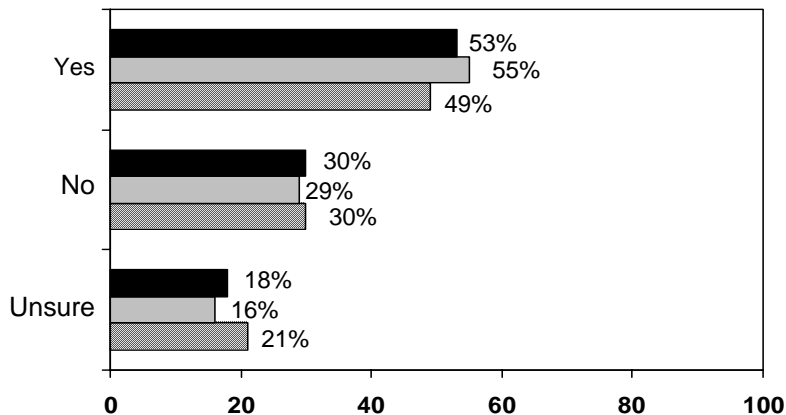

Does NCLB require too much testing, too little, just right?

Do you believe that EVERY child in the country will score at grade level or above by the end of the 2013 school year as required by NCLB?

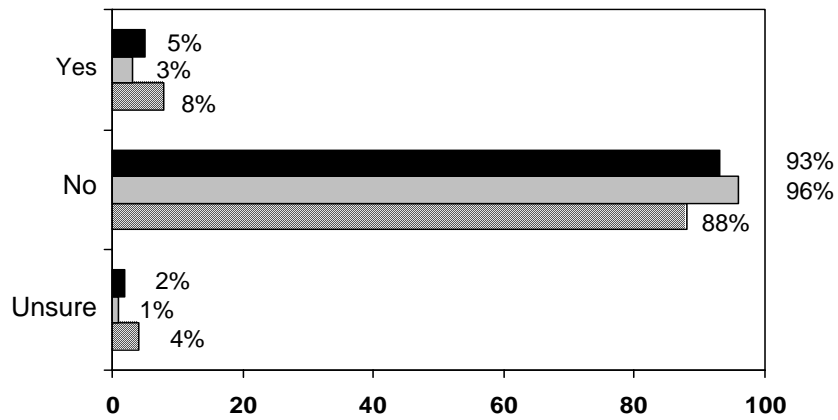

Should states and school districts be required to report test scores on the basis of disability, income, English language proficiency, race/ethnicity?

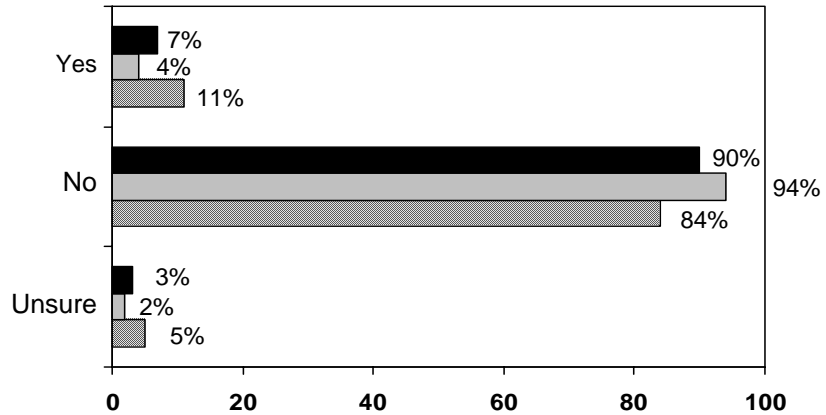

National
 Educators
 Non-educators

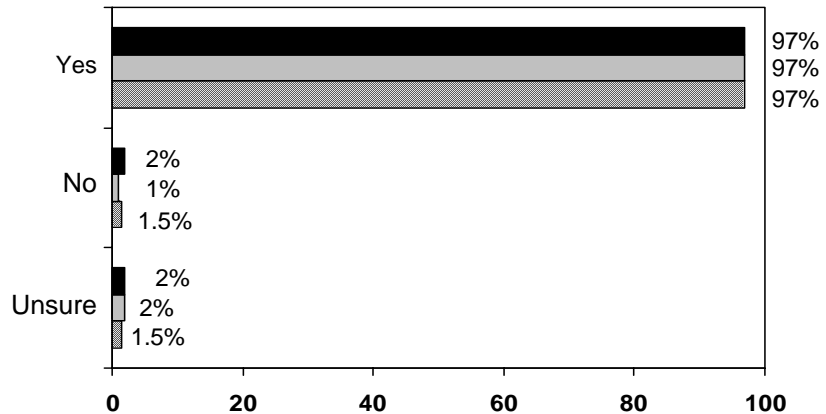

Do you believe that a single test can tell if the entire student body needs academic improvement?

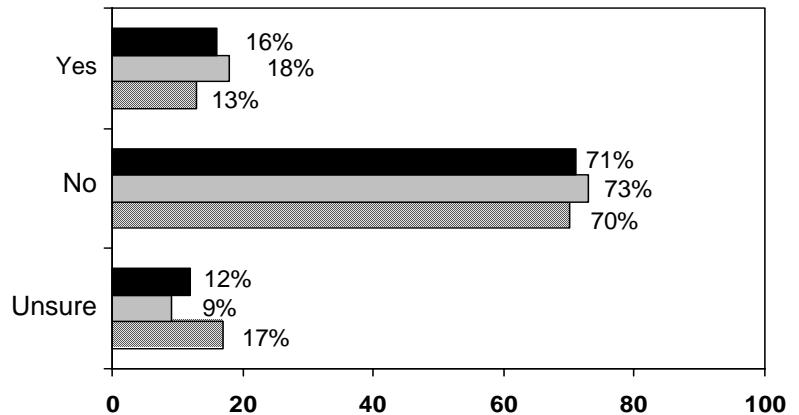

Do you believe that a single test can tell if individual students are performing satisfactorily?

Do you believe every child should have a qualified teacher?

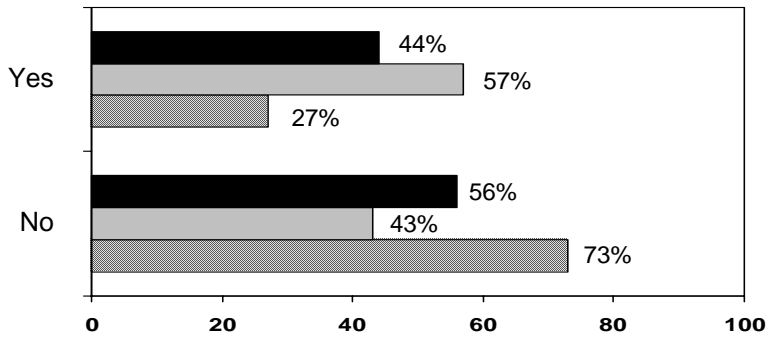

Do you believe that, by 2005, every school will meet the NCLB requirement that all teachers must be qualified in the core subjects that they teach?

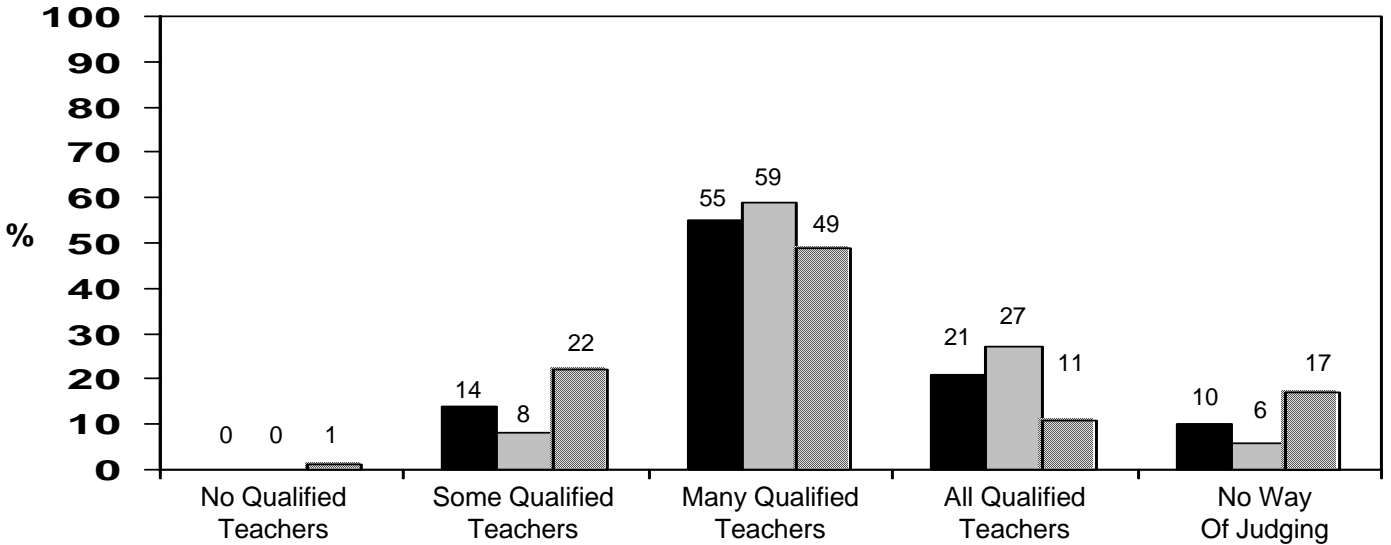

National
 Educators
 Non-educators

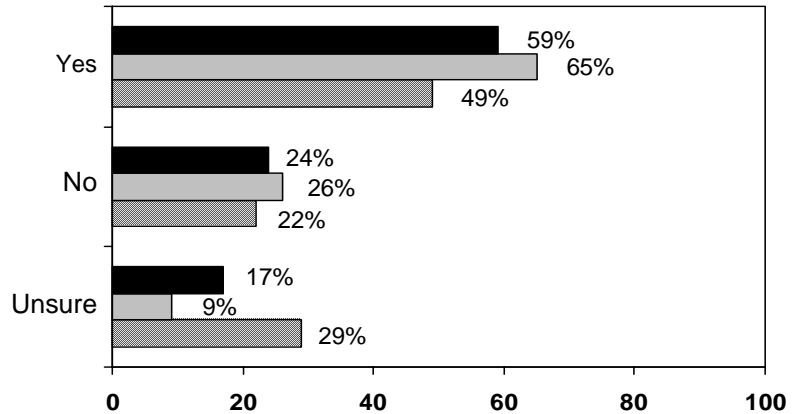

Have you received information from you school district about the qualifications of teachers in your schools?

How would you rate the teachers in your local schools?

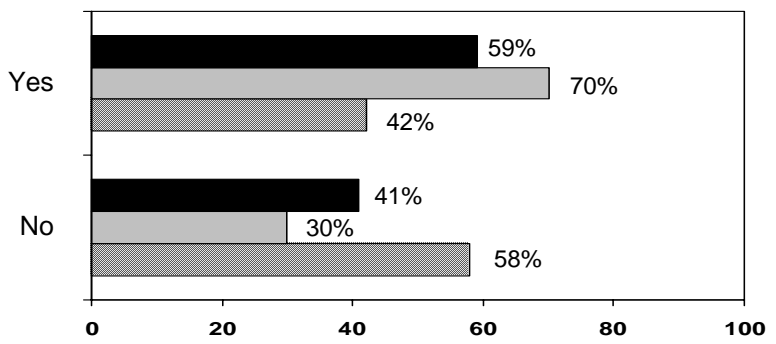

Have schools in your community been labeled as “needing improvement” or “failing” because of NCLB?

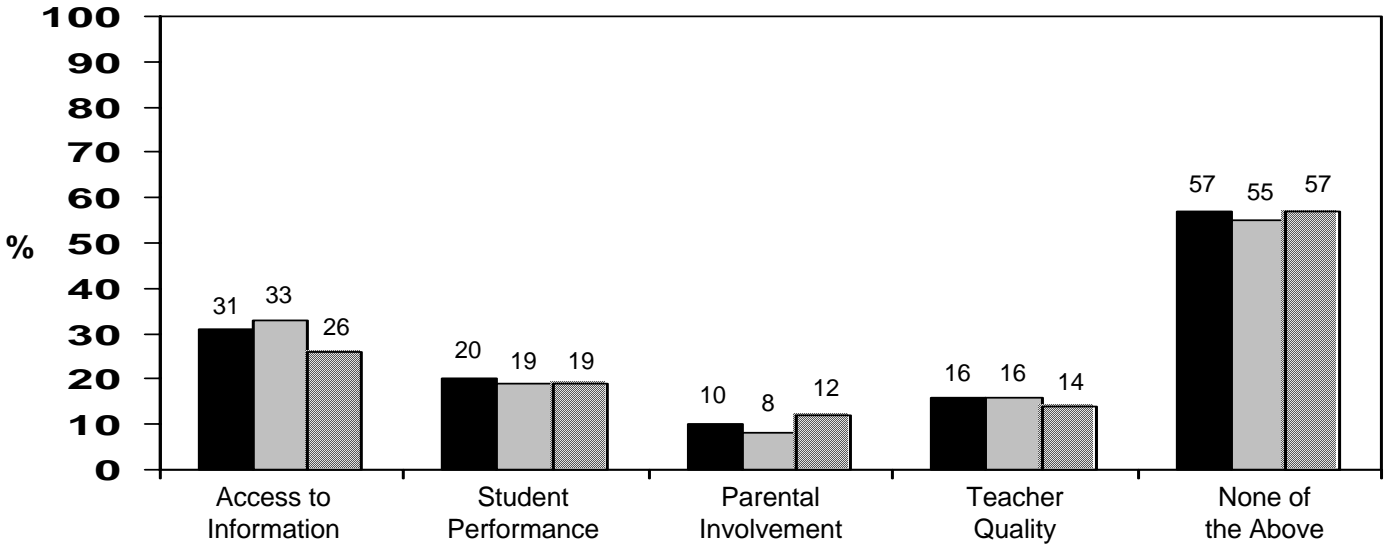

National
 Educators
 Non-educators

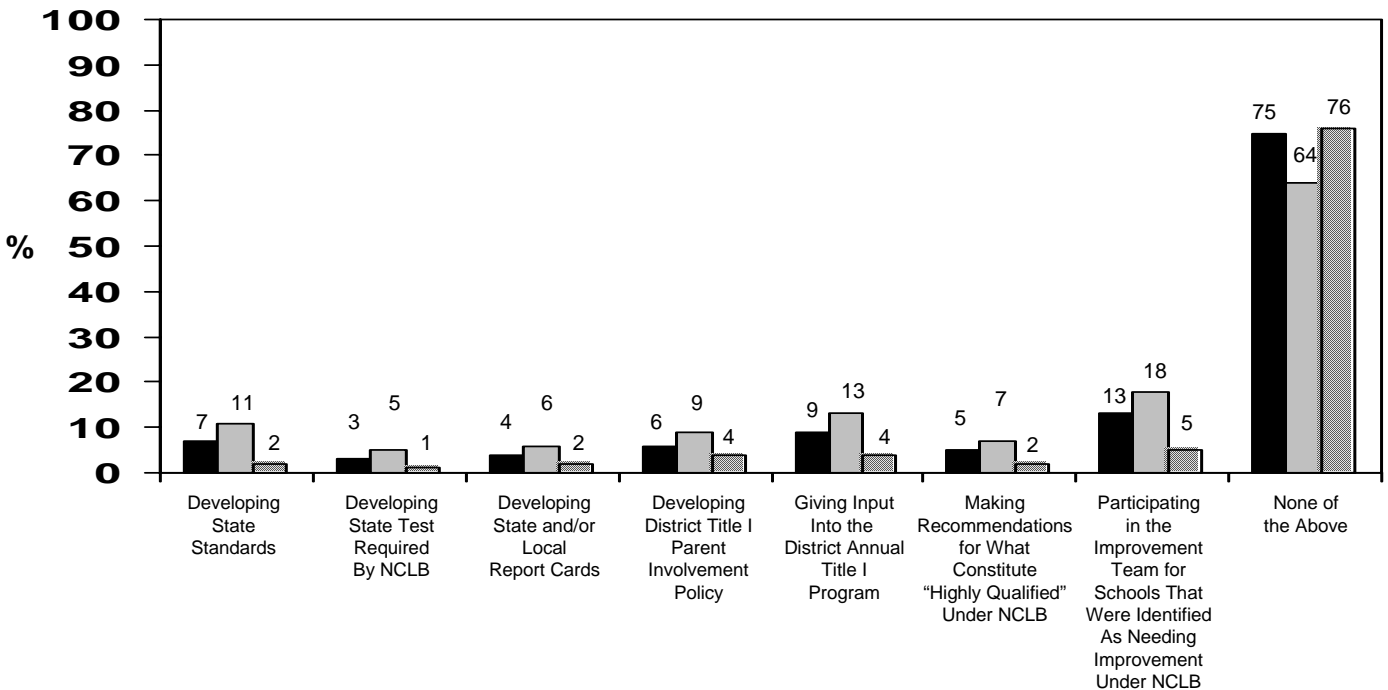

Are you getting enough information about the performance of the schools in your community?

Has NCLB made a difference in any of the following areas? (check all that apply)

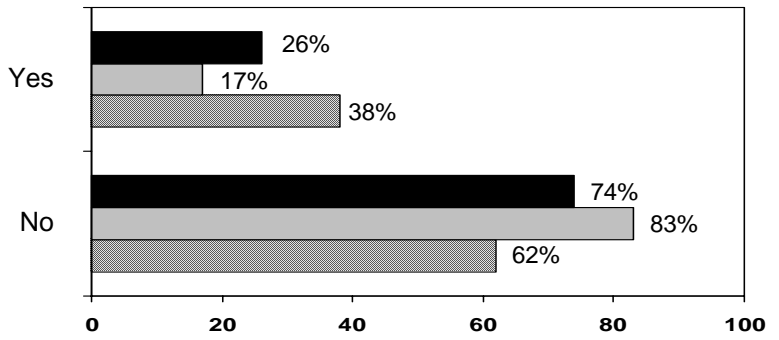

Have you been asked to become involved in any of the following educational activities related to NCLB? (check all that apply)

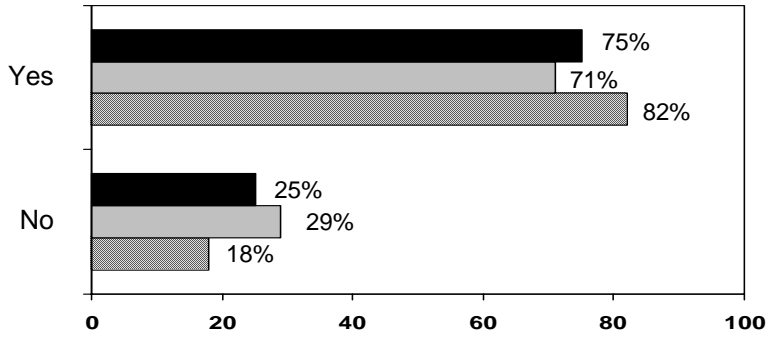

National
 Educators
 Non-educators

NCLB gives parents and students attending low-performing schools a choice option (transferring to another public school within the school district). Do you think this option will help students perform better academically?

NCLB gives parents and students attending low-performing schools a supplemental education services option (providing tutoring beyond the regular school day to help students meet the standards). Do you think this option will help students perform better academically?

National
 Educators
 Non-educators